

Supplementary Figure S1

Figure S1. Time series correlation heat map. The 30 most abundant oligotypes in the time series data, measured by total reads, are shown. Pearson correlation coefficients were calculated for each pair of oligotypes for the read counts measured in the male subject in days 66-420. Heat map is a visual representation of the correlation coefficients; the coefficients themselves are shown in each square.