

Namibia Marine Data Collection

Andreas H. L. T. Hainghumbi

Head, Library of the Institute for Halieutics and Oceanographic Research (IRHOB)
Benin

Abstract

The paper gave an overview of how the National Marine Information Research Centre (NatMIRC) collects its data and the functions of such data. This included brief descriptions of data collecting techniques used or applied by NatMIRC scientists and the processes involved in transforming such data into information, and the functions and roles of such information thereafter.

Keywords: Benin, libraries, NatMIRC, data collection.